Search under way for inmate who failed to return from community leave

ASHEVILLE – Corrections officers and local law enforcement agencies are seeking inmate Genenne Davis, 51, after she failed to return tonight from an approved leave in the community this weekend.

Inmate Davis (#1149130) nearing completion of a three-year sentence for identity fraud and was housed at Swannanoa Correctional Center for Women. She has no history of violent crimes. She may attempt to travel to Eden or Kernersville, where she has family and friends.

Anyone who has seen Davis, or has information about her whereabouts is asked to call your local police or Swannanoa Correctional Center for Women at 828-259-6000.
