Current Revision Summary (if applicable):

The following revision is effective:

1. Deleted the following sentence from item F.0703 (i), "Inmates that are classified as close or medium custody will be handcuffed when transported by security vehicle or a secure transfer bus system." This sentence was revised in the last policy update and is not accurate. It was not the intention of the division to mandate that medium custody inmates be transferred in restraints on the transfer bus. This is left, as in the past, to the discretion of the transfer officer.
